

J. D. Penangke

Using Aboriginal Art to maintain culture and provide a cultural experience to all clients.

The name J.D. Penangke comes from Jade Dolman's initials and Penangke (pronounced pen-ung-ga) is her skin name, which she inherited from her Father's line.

Jade is a Whadjuk/Balladong Nyoongar (Mother's side), Eastern Arrernte (Father's side) woman from Perth. She is a visual artist and a cultural educator.

Jade remains connected to her culture through painting and family. She has a passion for making a change for Indigenous Australians especially youth through different forms of art whether it be painting or dance.

J.D. Penangke has reached out to many schools (primary & secondary) since starting in 2014. Artworks have been created for the WA Museum, Art Gallery of Western Australia and recently for the new Perth Stadium. The types of services provided include Murals, Art Workshops, Community Canvas Workshops, Dance & Song Workshops and Indigenous Face Painting.
